SPEAKER: On General File LB 111 which was bracketed to be heard yesterday. We will now take up LB 111.

CLERK: Read title.

SPEAKER: Chair recognizes Senator Fowler.

SENATOR FOWLER: Mr. Clerk would it be possible to take all these six amendments at once, or should we take them all separately?

CLERK: You can do it all at once, unless somebody would like to separate them.

SENATOR FOWLER: OK, I would like to move for adoption of the committee amendments. If I could explain the bill . . . just a little background. It deals with the comprehensive plan for cities of the primary class and counties that contain cities of the primary class, which currently is just the city of Lincoln and the county of Lancaster. The amendments are really three in nature. They're repetitious because they change both the section dealing with the city and the section dealing with the county. One of the things is to insert the phrase "architectural and cultural" into the things that the comprehensive
